Rebel by Amy Tintera is the sequel to Reboot. The story is told from alternating POVs, Callum and Wren's. I liked how the story was told from two different POVs, but there's no clear distinction between the two. I felt like Wren And Callum didn't show enough their own personality. Callum didn't show enough of his personality and I really like Callum.

I can happily say, REBEL has come out on top in the duology, and become one of my favorites for 2014! In REBEL we had so much growth in the main character Wren.
