Running on the roof of the world is an important story about oppression and not letting the evil done to you change you. If you're aware of the situation in Tibet - which has been going on since the 50s - then you'll understand the setting for this story.
If you don't know about it you really should go and find out!

If you are walking on the top of a moving train, numerous catastrophes could befall you. A sudden unexpected gust of wind (from a downburst) could blow you off the train. A sunkink in the track (acute expansion bend of the rails) could cause the car to move quickly sideways and sling you off the train.
