A poetic translation of the classic Arthurian story is an edition in alliterative language and rhyme of the epic confrontation between a young Round Table hero and a green-clad stranger who compels him to meet his destiny at the Green Chapel. Reprint. 20,000 first printing.

King Arthur ' s kingdom is flourishing, but Sir Gawain craves the adventures of days past. He welcomes the challenge of facing down a dragon, but the fight – and his own rage – can only lead to death. In the vein of Arthurian classics Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and The Once and Future King, " Sir Gawain and the Dragon " explores Gawain ' s internal struggles as he attempts to epitomize chivalrous knighthood.
